CONFIDENTIALITY

Any information about Boulder County CareConnect (BCCC) or BCCC's clients, vendors, members, donors, volunteers or affiliates that is not otherwise publicly available constitutes confidential information. Volunteers of BCCC may not disclose confidential information to anyone who is not employed by BCCC.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

BCCC recognizes the high level of trust placed in its volunteers by our clients. When in doubt concerning a potential conflict of interest, the volunteer should immediately review the situation with his/her BCCC supervisor.

NO SOLICITATION

The relationship between a volunteer and a client is guided by a profound respect for diversity and a belief in human potential, recognizing that each person has an individual dignity worthy of respect. Volunteers will respect the preferences and decisions of clients and refrain from applying undue pressure in matters of choice. Volunteers will not financially profit directly or indirectly from a client or engage in activities that pose a conflict of interest.
